

Students from Innis Education centre being given a lesson on the new laptop provided by Zest for Life.

Hilary took two laptops over in June, one for Innis and one for the nearby medical centre. Jessica Olwa at the Medical centre is training the Innis teachers in IT and the students are using their laptop for science activities.

